

THE START OF SOMETHING NEW FROM PCA

Posted on October 28, 2020 by Suzy Campbell | PCA

We are excited to announce the Grand Re-Opening of Prescott Center for the Arts and our new cabaret style theater on November 12th, 2020! The PCA Cabaret will feature live entertainment including, musicals, concerts and plays all from the comfort and safety of socially distanced tables. We reduced our capacity and increased ventilation in order to meet all the health and safety guidelines required for indoor seating. Prior to the show, our patrons can dine on small plates offered by our amazing local chefs. All proceeds from the food is designed to support our local restaurants during these challenging times. If you will be joining us for a special treat prior to the show your arrival time is 6:30 or 1:00 for matinees. The show starts at 7:30. Matinees at 2:00 on Sundays. For the safety of our patrons there will be no intermission and all shows will have a running time of no longer than 90 minutes.

Join us for our first production, The Start of Something New; The “We’re Back!” Musical Revue! is a hilarious new musical revue with a send up to date night and dating in this new world we live in! Written by Pam Cannedy and Stepan Oleksyn. Starring Scott Neese, David Jones, Judah Neese and Kimberleigh Rose. This cast of 4 (all quarantined for health and safety criteria) will sing, dance and delight you using popular songs from radio and Broadway to create a relaxed atmosphere of fun and entertainment. The show runs Nov 12th-22nd.
