

LIVING HISTORY ADVENTURE: A SPOOKY SPECTACULAR AT THE SHARLOT HALL MUSEUM, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14

Posted on October 12, 2023 by Sharlot Hall Museum

Move beyond the everyday. The veil between this world and the next is thinnest this time of year, and the spirits are out to play. Embark on a haunting journey, and let our campus cast a spell on you as we explore Victorian superstitions, mourning practices, and more.

Join us this Saturday, October 14th from 10am to 3pm for "A Spooky Spectacular" Living History Adventure. Explore the Museum's campus and meet Living History interpreters on the grounds and in historic buildings as they go about their day.

Living History Adventure activities are included in the price of admission (children 12-under and members get in free).
