

RUNAWAY PINK GOAT FOUND IN PRESCOTT VALLEY CIRCLE K PARKING LOT

Posted on January 4, 2024 by Prescott Valley Police Department

On Christmas Eve, Prescott Valley Police Officer Johnson received a call that an escaped goat was playing reindeer games in the Circle K parking lot on Prescott East Highway. She was dressed in a festive pink bandana, a pink collar, and had a touch of pink on her tail. After being transferred to the station's kennel, she was reunited with her owner just in time for an unfor-goat-able Christmas.

As a reminder, goats are not permitted within Prescott Valley Town limits. To view the Prescott Valley Town Code, visit our website.
