And the star, Robert Shields, will be there for the Q&A after the film.

Imagine: He once opened for the Rolling Stones, became one of the top attractions in San Francisco (2nd only to the Cable Car), performed in front of 2 Presidents and a Queen and was one of the most unique acts in Las Vegas, winning Entertainer of the Year Two years in a row - all without saying a word!

Robert Shields: My Life as a Robot, was the top award winning film at the Sedona International Film Festival, garnering both the Audience Choice Documentary BEST OF FEST Award and the Marion Herrman EXCELLENCE IN FILMMAKING Award. The film took home another top award at its most recent showing - Audience BEST FEATURE Award at the Vermont Film & Folklore Festival.

Robert's life is one that truly proves anything is possible. This documentary tells the story of how he went from a teenager performing as a robot in front of the Hollywood Wax Museum to having a top-rated CBS variety show with his beautiful wife Lorene Yarnell, and, unbeknownst to him, became the inspiration for famous Hip-Hop and Pop & Lock dancers all over the world.

The film will be shown July 18th at 7 pm at the Jim & Linda Lee Performing Arts Center.
