

DEMOCRATS CUT THEIR OWN THROATS - BUZ BLOG

Posted on March 16, 2025 by Buz Williams

It seems like the Democrats and their left media cheerleaders, are speeding down the road to self destruction. On Monday, March 3, the Senate Democrats voted to block the Protection of Women and Girls in Sports Act, H.R. 28. Almost 80% of Americans favor banning men in women's sports, yet every Democrat Senator voted to block this legislation. The only logical conclusion is that they don't care what the vast majority of their constituents want. In their narcissistic egotism, the Democrats think they know better than the people.

They also showed the country how unresponsive they are to the views of the large majority of their fellow citizens. It doesn't matter what the issue is, the Democrats back views and policies that are opposite of what most citizens want. Whether it is the sexual transitioning of children, eliminating fossil fuel, drilling for oil and gas or ending the Ukraine war by negotiating with Russia and Ukraine, Democrats oppose what a majority of the electorate want.

After President Trump's address to the joint session of Congress, any individual with half a brain or more, would have to come to the conclusion that Democrats want everyone to see that their allegiance is to their party's high dollar donors, the far left component of their party, and not the citizens they represent. Whether it was the crotchety, pony tailed, cane wielding, Congressman Al Green interrupting the President and having to be escorted out, or the house Democrats breaking out into song when he was censured the next day, Americans were able to see how petty, and juvenile the Democrats are. Their actions during the joint session and afterward, just accentuated their opposition to common sense, logic and the will of the American people.

Those that watched the joint session were able to see how idiotic the Democrats looked when they held up their ping pong paddles with words like "That's a lie" or "Musk steals" or "Save Medicaid" and other saying, ad nauseam. These Senators and Representatives sat on their hands while the President and Republicans applauded and celebrated a 13 year old brain cancer victim, who wanted to be a police officer and was given Secret Service credentials.

The Democrats sat stone faced and emotionless when President Trump acknowledged the sacrifice of the family of victims who were senselessly murdered by illegal aliens. In fact, during the whole Trump speech, there was never a smile seen on any robotic, Democrat face. They all looked like their facial expressions were frozen after sucking on a lemon. Those images will stick in the minds of viewers who saw them. Someone needs to advise the Democrats that even ugly people look a lot less homely when they smile.

It didn't take much imagination, at the joint session, to see the three witches in the opening scene of Macbeth, when the camera panned to the purple haired Representative Rosa DeLauro, the sour faced blonde Representative to DeLauro's right, or the gum chomping Nancy Pelosi. Most Americans have to conclude that Democrats are dour, rigid ideologues who brook no deviation from their DEI wokism. While there are a few, a very few, Democrat voices attempting to turn the Democrat party away from their self-destructive, extremely unpopular positions, the huge number of them are slogging, lockstep toward the suicidal cliff.